No Telephone to Heaven (Paperback)

By Michelle Cliff

Penguin Putnam Inc, United States, 1998. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 198 x 135 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. A brilliant Jamaican-American writer takes on the themes of colonialism, race, myth, and political awakening through the experiences of a light-skinned woman named Clare Savage. The story is one of discovery as Clare moves through a variety of settings Jamaica, England, America and encounters people who affect her search for place and self. The structure of No Telephone to Heaven combines naturalism and lyricism, and traverses space and time, dream and reality, myth and history, reflecting the fragmentation of the protagonist, who nonetheless seeks wholeness and connection. In this deely poetic novel there exist several levels: the world Clare encounters, and a world of which she only gradually becomes aware a world of extreme poverty, the real Jamaica, not the Jamaica of the middle class, not the Jamaica of the tourist. And Jamaica almost a character in the book is described in terms of extraordinary beauty, coexisting with deep human tragedy. The violence that rises out of extreme oppression, the divided loyalties of a colonized person, sexual dividedness, and the dividedness of a person neither white nor black all of these...
