JOURNAL OF MEDIEVAL MILITARY HISTORY: V. 4 (HARDBACK)

Boydell Brewer Ltd, United Kingdom, 2006. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 234 x 160 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The essays in this latest edition of the Journal, by leading experts in the field, are a witness to the flourishing state of the subject, and provide significant contributions to various important on-going debates and controversies. They include wide-ranging discussions of state formation and the role of women in medieval warfare, and an energetic argument against viewing medieval warfare as cavalry-dominated. A trio of articles dealing with issues of bravery and cowardice, though based on Anglo-Saxon and Anglo-Norman evidence, advance our knowledge of one of the all-pervasive aspects of the military history of the middle ages. Similarly, an experimentally-based study of the effectiveness of arrows against mail armor reaches conclusions that will cast light on combat from Visigothic Spain to Crusader Outremer to fifteenth-century Bohemia. In addition, the Journal includes in-depth studies of Iberian war-dogs, the naval battle of Zierikzee at the start of the fourteenth century, and (reflecting the editors broad understanding of the scope of the field) the war-related activities of Dutch magistrates at the turn of the sixteenth century. The contributors include: Stephen Morillo, Bernard S. Bachrach, Russ Mitchell, Richard Abels, Steven Isaac, William Sayers, James P. Ward, J. F. Verbruggen, and Robert Burns.
