Curve Communications Group Ltd., United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In Cleaning Up in a Dirty Business, bookkeeper and entrepreneur Cora Schupp offers a straightforward solution for you to gain control of your career and increase your earnings. Cleaning companies can be very stable and profitable, and they require minimal start-up costs. Leaving no corner undusted, Schupp guides you through everything you need to know about starting your own cleaning company—from how to land your first big client to hiring the right staff and marketing. Sparkling with wit and encouragement, Cleaning Up combines practical advice with fun cartoons and Schupp's personal stories, including common problems you might face and how to overcome them. An easy-to-follow action plan helps you break the barrier between dreaming and action—and tidy up when you're done. As a bonus, you will receive free downloads of all the templates you need to start your small business, from budgets to cleaning checklists. WITHIN YEARS of building both a janitorial service and janitorial supply company from scratch, Cora Schupp quickly found herself among the top five percent of female wage earners in Canada, holding competitive contracts with dozens of department and grocery store chains as well as managing a staff of more than 100 people. After selling both successful businesses in 2005, Schupp settled in New Westminster, BC, where she currently performs professional accounting and bookkeeping services for a variety of clients, including Learning Curve Series founders Curve Communications Group Ltd. PRAISE FOR CLEANING UP IN A DIRTY BUSINESS Cora is an incredible author because she puts her best effort into everything she does. She is a hardworking, knowledgeable woman, the best mother, and a good wife. Her organization...
