In now making that request, we beg to couple with it the expression of our sincere admiration of the ability displayed in the Lecture, and the assurance of our Gratification to find its merits so cordially appreciated by all who heard it. My Lecture of Wednesday evening last having been (as you are aware) written for delivery, not publication, is more unworthy, in many particulars, than I could wish, of the favorable consideration so kindly expressed in your note. I am happy, however, to place it at your disposal, and beg you to believe that I appreciate your partial courtesy.
