Young Men s Mutual Improvement Associations, Vol. 1: Manual The object of this Manual is to present a practical working aid to the officers and members of the Young Men s Mutual Improvement Associations. The reasons for following simple and progressive plan and order are obvious from natures simple formula, viz: - What? How? Why? The What is it? by this time, presumably, is generally understood. The How is it to be done? is of present, vital importance. Hence the compilation of this Manual. The Why is it? in a general sense, is answered already to those having to do with the associations; in a technical sense it does not so much concern us at present. It is proposed to issue next year, Part II, containing second year s course, and so on till the four years course is completed. A revision of these four parts can then be made and the whole be bound in a convenient Manual as a practical hand-book for the associations. It is presumed from the extensive literature published, and personal visits and instructions given, that the officers generally are familiar with the idea of the four basic Studies, viz: Theology, History, Science, Literature [see diagram]. All intelligent students will agree that a theological Foundation Is essential, indispensable imperative. With a testimony of the Gospel of Christ, the student may safely, successfully and searchingly pursue any and all general or special lines of legitimate thought - pursue with interest - with intelligence - with profit - with speed - with profundity - with relation - which relation is truth.
