Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Introduction Following are some reflections upon Finding God s Will as understood thru the Mystery of the sacrifice of Abraham, the Father of Faith, of his Son, Isaac. Chapter one considers the command of God that stopped Abraham from completing the sacrifice of Isaac and why. Chapter two goes on to show how God opened Abraham s eyes, both naturally and supernaturally, to find a suitable substitute for Isaac s sacrifice. Chapter three speaks shortly about how God sees what we can never see; that is, the distant future and he arranges all our activities thruways unknown to us, to accomplish his Holy Will in our lives. Chapter four speaks about the gift of ourselves to others, especially to God, since all belongs to him to use as he sees fit for our eternal salvation. Abraham knew this and this is what we reflect as being the essential wisdom of Abraham. Chapter five ends by considering the significance of charity and how the gift is more than what we receive in return since it unites us to God and nothing can equal that gift of peace which is the result: Peace I leave with you. Chapters six thru eleven continue the reflections with the example of the life of Jesus (6-8), using the spiritual senses to strengthen our union with God s will (9-10); lastly, examples from two Mystic Saints of the Catholic Church, St. Teresa of Avila and St. John of the Cross. We are often confronted in our lives with important choices and these choices tug at our hearts since we have to decipher the most important from the least important things we hold. A person...
