Excerpt: .The court confirmed the report of the referee, and ordered that the temporary injunction be vacated and set aside as to the tracts not used for railroad purposes, and that it be granted and continued in force as to the other assessments mentioned in the complaint. From that part of the order vacating said injunction in part the plaintiff appealed, and the defendants appealed from so much of the order as granted and continued the injunction as to the assessments on lots used for railroad /liller, V0yes, /liller Wa/2l, for appellant. Clzarles H. Hamilton, for respondents. PINNEY, J. (after stating the facts). By section 6, c. 363. Laws 1895, of the act to provide for the payment of licenses by street-railway companies within this state, it is provided that the license fee therein mm.hllw=Y provided for shall be in lieu of all other (lomY: nlcs--ls-eu.-. llell---Exemption. taxes, assessments, and licenses of any such corporation, and all personal property, franchises, and real estate owned by such company or corporation shall be exempt from assessment and taxation; that all land or lots unimproved, or having buildings thereon, owned by any such person. company, or corporation, shall be liable to taxation for state, county, and school purposes. This action concerns certain city assessments, which are special taxes. The exemption of the lots in question from these assessments is in clear and unqualified terms, and it is shown that the plaintiff had paid its annual license fee, as...
