Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Cole s War: With Ignorance and Deceit Fellow Citizens: - The time is drawing near when you will assemble in Convention, by delegation, in the Queen City of the West. In a few weeks you will be summoned from the airy heights and shadowy depths of every mountain and valley in the State, and every plain, where the yeoman s tread has marked the dust. Your summons will be more soul-stirring than the bugle-peal of the warrior host! It comes as the voice of Justice struggling with her balance in the dust. It is the voice of outraged humanity - the voice of mankind - appealing to Heaven and earth for help against the unmitigated wrongs of despotism. Fellow Citizens - Should our Convention be favored with a selection, generally, of the true friends of religion, morality, intelligence, industry, and enterprise, assembling to promote the common interest of our whole people, then, indeed, will we have the fullest assurance of the happiest results from our Convention. Then may we expect a cementing of our peoples minds and hearts, (which have been too much divided during the past year on our common cause,) then may we look for a concentration of effort and action, possessing omnipotence. Let us look well to the unity of our people. To effect which, respect must be shown to religion and morality; respect must be shown to intelligence, though it may not be sanctified by religion. Respect must Do shown to the industrious and enterprising among our people, though they be not favored with any or much education. The right of honest (pinion must also be respected among us. Fellow...
